

Marines Use Up Three German Divisions in Week and Still Looking for More to Conquer

GERMANS ON RUN BEFORE JUNGLE-RUSHING AMERICANS. Our Men Dash into Battle Yelling Like Indians, Plying Rifle and Bayonet Against Enemy.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MARNE, Thursday, June 7.—The second attack made today by American marines on German positions northwest of Chateau Thierry early gave promise of being as successful as the first. The marines reached all their objectives set for the first hour within that time limit and pushed beyond them. The early reports indicated the Germans were on the run for the time being and surrendering right and left to the Americans.

One of the toughest of all the objectives, Belleau Wood, some four miles from Chateau Thierry, was swept by the marines without serious trouble.

ELECT COUNTER-BLOW.

There seemed reason to expect German counter-attacks in strength before long, for previous to the battle which began at 5 p.m., the roads behind the German lines were filled with troops, guns and tanks, and the American artillery turned on them and greeted heavy.

The marines in their forward sweep took ground on either side of Belleau Wood and cleared out the ravine south of Torcy, which linked up the main line with Hill 142, which was taken this morning. This gave them a strong and dominating position for the attack on the German line. Their total advance was approximately two miles on a three-mile front.

The prisoners taken were not known this evening, but additional captives were being taken by the marines in an attack, which netted about 100 prisoners.

PRUSSIAN PRISONERS.

A notable development was the low morale of the prisoners, all of whom were Prussians. They expressed themselves as tired of the war and glad to get out of the fighting. This was despite the fact they said they were furnished with food, although the Germans had no food, although the Germans had no food, although the Germans had no food.

IN FOUR WAVES.

The marines advancing in the Belleau Wood area were forward in four waves in open formation. The men in the first wave were for the most part armed with rifles and machine guns, while the second and third waves were equipped with automatic rifles. With them came squads of machine gunners, light machine gunners, and others who also had surrendered, but refused to put up their hands.

ARTILLERY HELPS.

The artillery fire that preceded the attack began an hour and was of special intensity at the moment preceding the time when the marines went over the top. French and American batteries had been busy in the firing, putting down a rolling barrage and then shifting to the roads behind the German lines.

TELLTALE FIGURES.

The story of the Times' advertising leadership in Los Angeles again is eloquently told by the following tabulation, which contains the advertising score of the Los Angeles newspapers for Sunday, June 2, 1918:

TOTAL ADVERTISING
The Times	8,884 inches
Second newspaper	1,403 "
Third newspaper	823 "

The best evidence of a newspaper's popularity is the extent to which its "want-ad" columns are used. About this there can be no doubt. It is indisputable and beyond controversy.

On Sunday, June 2, The Times printed 855 more inches of "want ads" than the other two local newspapers combined. The following is the score:

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING
The Times	2,829 inches
Second newspaper	1,403 "
Third newspaper	823 "

The thoroughness and completeness with which The Times covers Los Angeles and Southern California justifies experienced advertisers in using its columns exclusively.

The far-reaching, home-delivered quality distribution of The Times for May, 1918, is shown by the following figures of sworn circulation:

Average for every day of May, 1918
Sunday only average for May, 1918	123,500
Average every day for May, 1918	9,511
Average Sunday only for May, 1917	10,778

The Times' fidelity and devotion to the best interests of the United States government and its virile, patriotic Americanism do not require explanation, apologies or excuses.

U-BOAT VICTIM'S CREW LANDS IN NEW JERSEY. NORWEGIAN VESSEL SUNK OFF VIRGINIA COAST LAST WEDNESDAY.

CAPE MAY (N. J.) June 7.—Nine members of the crew of the Norwegian ship Vinland (Porto Rico for an Atlantic port with a cargo of sugar) were landed at Cape May point today. Their ship was sunk by a German submarine six miles off the Virginia coast last Wednesday evening.

The men were immediately taken to the Wismahickon naval barracks at Sewall's Point, and no one was permitted to see or talk to them.

Before the crew was placed under guard several of them said the Vinland had been sunk by a German U-boat, and that they had drifted until picked up far off shore by an American destroyer on a trial trip.

The men, who are Swedes and Norwegians, were cheerful. Some of them were wearing uniforms by men from the naval vessel, as they had to leave the Vinland with what few clothes they wore.

It was gathered from them that the Vinland was northbound with a cargo of sugar. The coast was for about 100 miles from the Vinland when the U-boat made its appearance.

PEACE OFFENSIVE IS OFF—KREUZ ZEITUNG.

POLITICAL BELLEWEATHER OF KAISER BELIEVED TO HAVE NEW ORDERS.

AMSTERDAM, June 7.—The Kreuz Zeitung of Berlin, referring to an article that appeared in its columns, which was the signal for peace offensives in the German press, says that the article was written by a collaborator, and the newspaper does not agree with him in thinking that the time has come for a political offensive. It declares that when the time comes for announcing war aims, the form must be such that no doubt can exist among Germany's enemies regarding her consciousness of power.

SANTA BARBARA BOY WOUNDED IN ACTION.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SANTA BARBARA, June 7.—Lieut. Harry L. Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dunn of the Arlington Hotel has been severely wounded in action, according to a cable received by his parents. Lieut. Dunn was sent to Europe with the 38th Infantry, and was awarded a Purple Heart for his gallant service in the capture of the village of Vailly. He joined the United States Field Artillery upon the arrival of Pershing's forces in France, and recently wrote his parents, "When you read of things happening in the American war, you may know they are happening to us."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Two more bakeries were ordered closed today for fifteen days each by the United States Food Administration for violation of the wheat laws.

FOE HEED EVERYWHERE; COUNTER-THRUSTS GAIN.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, June 7.—The Germans, it is generally believed, are now held at every point of their recent advance. They seem unable to execute the bold, surprise attacks, which are invariably repelled, whereas the counter-attacks, which the Allies are making, are proving notably successful, nearly always bringing about an improvement in the situation.

Throughout the day yesterday, except in the sector northwest of Chateau Thierry, where the French and British co-operated in opposing a German attack, there was little activity along the battle line by the Germans.

BOTTLED BLOOD SAVES SOLDIERS.

PUSH BACK GERMANS THROUGH STREETS.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MARNE, June 7.—The American marines, who began a second attack on the German lines last yesterday, captured the village of Torcy and drove their way into Bourches, northwest of Chateau Thierry. This morning they were holding Torcy in the face of repeated counter-attacks and were pushing back the Germans through the streets of Bourches. Virtually all their objectives in this attack were attained.

OUR MEN SWEEP ON BEYOND OBJECTIVES.

The American plan did not include the taking of Torcy, but the marines swept into it and drove out the Germans.

The one point where the objective was not reached was on the right of the attack in the Belleau Wood. The fiercest fighting is continuing here.

AMERICAN MARINES LAST NIGHT REACHED THE OUTSKIRTS OF BOURCHES.

American marines last night reached the outskirts of Bourches, northwest of Chateau Thierry, and poured volleys of machine-gun fire into the enemy, inflicting terrific casualties.

BAYONETS WERE USED FREELY AGAINST MANY OF THE GERMANS.

Bayonets were used freely against many of the Germans, who attempted to make a stand in the streets.

AT DAYBREAK TODAY THE MARINES WERE SLOWLY DRIVING THE GERMANS BACK IN THE FACE OF HEAVY ARTILLERY FIRE, INCLUDING GAS SHELLS.

The American artillery was performing magnificently in this operation.

VILLALIA MAN IN FIRST WAVE OVER THE TOP.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN PICARDY, June 7.—The German prisoners taken by the Americans, many of whom were boys, had only been in the line for two days. Some of them wore the white bands of the Prussian Guards.

PRIVATE CARL B. MILLA OF VILLALIA, CAL., WAS IN THE FIRST WAVE OF AMERICANS TO GO OVER THE TOP IN THE VEUILLY WOOD TO SMOKE OUT THE GERMANS REMAINING THERE.

He said that after his unit obtained its objectives many of the men went back and filled the ranks of their advancing comrades. All worked like clockwork, he said. The favorite slogan was "Each man get a German; don't let a German get you."

MANY INSTANCES ARE RELATED OF THE HEROISM OF THE RED CROSS WORKERS IN BRAVING SHOTS IN NO MAN'S LAND AND GATHERING IN OR AIDING WOUNDED.

The correspondent today talked with a 19-year-old German prisoner who was sitting under a tree eating American bread and drinking French wine. The soldier said he had been fighting a year and a half, for the most part in Russia. He carried a picture of his sweetheart on heavy cardboard which he said had saved his life from an American bullet.

THE YOUTH ADDED THAT IN GERMANY THERE WAS TALK OF MILLIONS OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS BUT THAT NOBODY BELIEVED IT. HE DID NOT KNOW THAT IT WAS THE AMERICANS OPPOSED TO THE GERMANS.

He thought the troops were British or longer hoped to reach Paris. All of them were sick of the war and he was glad he had been made prisoner.

THE FIGHTING LAST NIGHT NORTHWEST OF CHATEAU THIERRY RAGED WITH GREAT FEROCENESS FOR FIVE HOURS.

The Americans captured Bourches and entered Torcy. Twenty-five Americans in Torcy engaged and drove out 200 Germans and then withdrew to the main line on the outskirts of the town.

NOW HOLD PARIS ROAD.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN PICARDY, June 7.—The importance of the operations of the Americans on the Marne sector may be realized when it is recalled that only the day before the Americans entered the line the Germans advanced about ten kilometers. The Americans are now holding the Paris road near Le Thillot for a number of kilometers.

PARIS, June 7.—The twelfth aerial victory of Second Lieutenant Frank Baylies of New Bedford, Mass., and the sixth of Sgt. David E. Putnam of Brookline, Mass., was announced by the newspapers. Both Americans are attached to French flying squadrons.

TEUTON TROOPS OPERATE IN FAR EASTERN SIBERIA. Action by Japan to Protect Manchuria is Considered Possibility.

(BY PACIFIC CABLE AND A. P.)

HAIRIN (Manchuria) Sunday, June 2.—Gen. Semenov, leader of the anti-Bolshevik forces in Siberia, reports that Bolsheviki troops today crossed the Onon River in Trans-Baikalia and strongly pressed a number of attacks which were checked. An Austro-German force, composed of a cavalry brigade and four companies of infantry, is threatening Gen. Semenov's communications.

Some time ago it became known that the Allies had approved a plan by which Japan and China were to take action when it was considered necessary for the preservation of peace for the Far East. The plan provided for the formation of a Russo-German division, composed of former prisoners of war in Siberia, now operating so close to Japan as to be within striking distance of the long-enduring situation to the point of action.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Long-talked of military action by Japan and China in Siberia may be precipitated by the movement of Russian Bolsheviki troops into the Siberian province of Trans-Baikalia in pursuit of the Cossack leader, Gen. Semenov.

The crossing of the Onon River by the Bolsheviki is construed by the officials here as part of a campaign to exclude Semenov from any use of the northern or Amur River region. The Cossack leader has been working along the southern border of Trans-Baikalia from his headquarters at Ulaan.

TO ELECTRIFY STEAM LINES.

Federal Oil Director is Asked to Act at Once.

Say Change is Necessitated as Fuel-Saving Measure.

Engineers Would Also Abolish
Grade Crossings.

D. M. Folsom, Federal oil director for the Pacific Coast of the United States Fuel Administration, was formally asked to assign experts to pass upon the proposition of electrifying the steam railroad lines of Southern California, at a meeting of the Los Angeles section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in the Brack Shop Auditorium last night. The American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the Engineers' and Architects' Association of Southern California, the American Institute of Mining Engineers, the American Institute of Architects, and the American Chemical Society, were all represented at the meeting.

Steam locomotives in California are consuming 17,000,000 barrels of oil per year, which can be saved
for war necessities by the immediate electrification of the main lines. It was stated at the meeting and it was insisted that the change of motive power should be made triple the lines, being united under government direction.

NOW IS TIME.

The vital facts summarized by George Damon, chairman, were as follows:

The consumption for other purposes of oil required to prosecute our overseas warfare, while waterpower plants are now supplying over 80 per cent. of the power load on the Pacific Coast, should be stopped. Moreover, there is still undeveloped four or five times as much hydro-electric energy as is in use at the present time. The absolute feasibility of the complete transcontinental electrification of the superior of electricity as a motive power, and the absurdity of undertaking the electrification of lines without concurrent electrification of the transcontinental railroads, was pointed out. That the four mountain grades through which the transcontinental railroads enter Southern California can be electrified to advantage and these enterprises thoroughly justified and economical, was shown by a double track connection, extending through the back bones of the district, that this united main line for the joint use of all railroads can be economically electrified
and protected from grade crossings,
was his conclusion.

Chairman Damon further said:
"The Railroad Commission of the State of California, and the Director-General of the railroads of the United States, should direct their best efforts to a thorough investigation of the possibilities of a unified and electrified transportation system
for the Los Angeles district."

IN LOCAL DISTRICT.

In its broader scope, Chairman
Damon's analysis of the conditions which should be contemplated at this transition period, touched upon such local conditions as the establishing of terminals in Los Angeles, Pasadena, Long Beach and other cities; the use of the present electrical interurban system for the collection and distribution of passengers and freight; joint-trackage arrangements which would facilitate the movement of freight and the co-ordination of trolley and automobile services, so as to avoid all duplication of local transportation costs.

Dealing with the rapid transit question, he pointed out that our present interurban lines, covering about 1000 miles and serving nearly 1,000,000 people on private right-of-way, sometimes reaches a speed of sixty miles an hour, and is seriously handicapped by too many local stops and slow downings, which are largely attributed to grade crossings.

The perfection of the smokeless,
noiseless, dirtless electric locomotive, which when propelled by hydroelectric energy, pulls the longest and heaviest freight and passenger trains over the steepest
mountain grades with a capacity for the highest speed, will deal with in considerable detail.

EXTRAORDINARY TRAP TO CATCH DRAFT SLACKERS.

THE extraordinary story of a trap laid for slackers by government agents pretending to be slackers themselves was told on the witness stand in Judge Bledsoe's court yesterday in the Howenstein-Kennedy-Leroy draft evasion trial.

The ethics of the situation were terribly set forth by Chester North,
a member of the Naval Reserve and one of the investigators, whose mother, prominent in San Francisco society and club circles, acted as an amateur detective to trap Mrs.
Idell Kennedy in the same way. Mr.
North was on the witness stand practically all day undergoing a racking cross-examination by defense attorneys. The climax to his testimony came in the afternoon
when Attorney Le Compte Davis
asked the former investigator for the Department of Justice if he would go to the extent of making false statements for the purpose of assisting the government of the United States. Young North sat up in his witness chair, pointing his finger at Dr. Howenstein's counsel.

"Mr. Davis," he said, "I would go to any extent to help the United States government."

The question of "false statements" arose over North's introduction of one of the organization's letters, brought about by Mrs.
Kennedy, in which he testified that he and investigator Clarence Parker
were told Leroy they were draft evaders and wanted to know if Leroy knew Dr. Howenstein. Leroy was absolutely non-committal, the witness said.

Trial of the suit of Daniel M.
Hunsaker to recover $230 from S.
B. Mitchell, given for initial expenses of the California Conservatory of Music, Drama, Literature and Lan-

Judge Summerfield. Hunsaker, with Prof. F. De Lara, Rev. Baker P. Lee and Signor F. Constantino, opera singer, contributed to a fund of $1000 given to Mr. Mitchell to start the conservatory. Mr. Mitchell testified that he had met with success in starting the conservatory and had arranged for the co-operation of prominent men and women, but that the war put an end to the movement for the present.

Mr. Mitchell testified that each of the four men, who planned to start the conservatory, received 1000 shares of stock of the par value of $10, or $10,000 to each of the four to cover their initial payments.

RAIL MAN NOW BANKER.

W. J. Doran Elected a Vice-President of the Citizens' National Bank of This City.

W. J. Doran, formerly general agent for the Union Pacific here, was elected vice-president of the Citizens' National Bank at a meeting yesterday afternoon. Mr. Doran's new post is one just created, as the rapidly growing business of the bank rendered it necessary to have another executive to help handle affairs.

A resident of Los Angeles for many years, Mr. Doran was formerly cashier of the Bank of Commerce, which was consolidated with the American Bank, which in turn was one of the banks from which the Citizens' National Bank was formed. He was also one time vice-president of the Metropolitan Bank, which was merged with the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank. Before entering the employ of the Union Pacific, Mr.
Doran was a representative of the Southern Pacific of Mexico here.

So Says New Depot Quartermaster
of Southland's Resources on Arrival Here.

Col. William G. Gambrell, for five years depot quartermaster at Fort Logan, Colo., arrived in the city yesterday to assume his new duties
as depot quartermaster in this city.
He is accompanied by Mrs. Gambrell.
They will reside at the Ansonia.

Called here to take up the duties laid down by Col. H. L. Steele, who was recently placed in command at Fort MacArthur to fill a vacancy caused by the transfer of Col.
John W. C. Abbott to Honolulu.
Col. Gambrell says that he has found the depot load on the Pacific Coast
from a brief scrutiny of his predecessor's books. The Southwest is able to supply the government with all the rationed needed in this jurisdiction. He expressed surprise at finding that meals could be purchased here as cheaply as at Kansas City, where the great stockyards are located.

The new depot quartermaster took the buying for Camp Kearny, Camp Tallero, Fort Rosecrans, Rockwell Field, Fort McArthur, the Baldwin School at Arcadia, and March Aviation Field at Riverside.

NAVIGATION SCHOOL TO TAKE ALL APPLICANTS.

THE prospect of an early adjustment of the alleged difficulties arising from graduates
of the government navigation school and Capt. Thomas P. Deering, inspector of hulls and boilers
at Los Angeles Harbor, is contained in a telegram received late yesterday by Secretary Frank Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce.

John K. Bulger, supervising inspector for the First District, informed Mr. Wiggins that Capt.
Charles W. Saunders, sectional chief of the recruiting service for the United States Shipping Board, will accompany him from San Francisco to this city, arriving Tuesday, to conduct an inquiry into the complaints against Capt. Deering by students of the navigation school.

In the meantime Mr. Bulger has informed Capt. Deering by telegraph to accept all applicants for instruction in the navigation school.

The navigation school matter
came to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce early in the week,
when several students appeared before Secretary Wiggins and declared
they were unable to make satisfactory arrangements with Capt. Deering regarding examination for licenses as officers in the merchant marine. Nineteen graduates of the school insisted they would not appear before the inspector of hulls and boilers to take their examinations for licenses because they feared he would rate them down.

CONGRESS MAY ACCEPT OFFERS OF OIL MEN.

Prospects for Breaking Navy Reserve Deadlock Better, Says St. Clair, Returned from Washington.

THE success or failure of proposed oil development on lands
within the Naval Reserve No.
2, which has been in litigation for the past eight years, now depends upon the decision of the conference committee at Washington. The matter may be decided in a few days or it may not be settled in months. As it now stands Congress has adopted a relief bill, and the Senate has both bills and neither in these bills conflict and neither is said to suit Secretary of the Navy Daniels. The independent oil operators of California have submitted suggestions which they believe would result in the drafting of a more workable bill than either of those adopted by Congress and the Senate. A conference committee now has both bills and the oil operators' proposition in hand, and a speedy decision is hoped for.

This class was submitted to the Washington, D. C., yesterday by
P. St. Clair, of the Independent Oil Producers' Agency, which represents more than 150 companies in this State. Mr. St. Clair went to Washington along with a dozen other prominent local oil men more than a month ago, at the request of Fuel Administrator Requa, to discuss the oil land litigation and outline suggestions for a bill calculated to provide relief for the companies which are tied up in the lands which were withdrawn from public entry eight years ago by President Taft.

Mr. St. Clair remained in Washington two weeks longer than his associates to put forth a final effort for relief. He came home with the feeling that a better understanding has been reached, but that too much hope should not be based upon the expectation of speedy action.

OIL MEN'S SUGGESTIONS.

Before returning to Los Angeles
Mr. St. Clair submitted to the Fuel Administration a group of suggestions endorsed by a local oil producer, and calculated to result in a square deal for all parties concerned.
His suggestions are as follows:

"That in each of the cases now pending in the United States courts between the government and various claimants, stipulation be entered into and proper court order be secured.

"That wells may be drilled on the property involved in the suit.

"That any money spent on account of drilling wells, necessary appurtenances and producing oil or gas therefrom shall be credited to the defendant on account, in oversight of a judgment for plaintiff in suit."

AGAINST ALL DRY PETITIONS.

Church Federation Urges Concentration on National Amendment.

Opposition to any movement to place a prohibition measure upon the ballot by initiative petition, for this year's election, is expressed in a resolution adopted by the Executive Committee of the Church Federation of Los Angeles at its regular meeting last Tuesday. "Any such attempt," the resolution states, "would tend to divert attention from the ratification of the national prohibition amendment, and to divide the prohibition forces of the State."

The federation advises the church people to "withhold support from any such movement, and to give all their support to the effort of the united dry forces to make the State and nation bona fide by ratification of the national amendment."

Society Girl in Divorce Court.

Mrs. Wilbur (Marian Beveridge) Campbell.

HIS CONVIVIAL HABITS LEAD TO DIVORCE SUIT.

THE alleged convivial habits of Wilbur W. Campbell wrecked his marriage, which occurred June 15, 1912, to attractive Marian Beveridge, daughter of Philip J. Beveridge, capitalist of Hollywood. The wedding was a society event and the bride was the daughter of a prominent family. The marriage was wrecked by the husband's habits of staying out late at night, and his association with women of the street. The wife, Mrs. Campbell, has filed for divorce in Judge York's court asking a divorce from Mr. Campbell. The latter's habit of staying out late at night, and his association with women of the street, is the cause of the divorce. WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

The Friday Morning Club. The following officers were elected at the Friday Morning Club yesterday for the ensuing club year: President, Mrs. Andrew Stewart; first vice-president, Mrs. O. Shephard Barnum; second vice-president, Mrs. Berthold Baruch; recording secretary, Mrs. Louis B. Morton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Francis Howard; treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Sartori.

There is something a little incongruous about the production of an ancient Greek play at the Friday Morning Club on the same day as the election, which is so intensely modern, don't you know. But it was achieved with grace, and the club witnessed the "Alceste" of Euripides under the direction of Reginald Pole in all its sing-song mournfulness, with all its graceful posing, all its unreality, "before rushing out to record its vote for Mrs. Caldwell or Mrs. Sartori as treasurer, for Mrs. Reed or Mrs. Baruch as vice-president."

Britt, superintendent of Municipal Markets, that the milk dealers will gladly confer with city officials on the subject. A letter was mailed yesterday to every dairymen in Southern California requesting them to attend a conference of the California Milk Producers' Association in this city next Tuesday. BY THE STAFF

The sword and the hoe are a combination that even the Kaiser cannot defeat.

Another thing, the individual piles powdered sugar on straw, rice, wastes the sugar and spoils the straw.

There is much difference between politeness and earnestness. The world has no use for the man who is a growl.

Why monopolize the White House with sheep? Why not some of the "goats" in Washington?

One would imagine that anything that is to be said has been said by Congress. But, alas, we are doomed to disappointment.

Why refer to girls as children? If it were true the race would pass out of existence, for all few would lay and none set.

It used to be all the rage for American girls to aspire to be of foreign-titled men; but now American corporals are good enough for them.

What has become of the telephone girl who was saying, "I am ringing them, you had an opportunity to call me?"

What will Jesse Willard do about it, with the compelling all of the laborer to work effectively? Hard to ahead for the pugs.

What evolutions will the vegetable have in the vegetable garden? You know all vegetables were once, and that was before the day of Luther Burbank.

The pickers who are swarming down to the vegetable garden are to be made to stand aside and let the way of those who are willing to exert their strength.

It is suggested that the States present to the Allies a $1,000,000,000 loan that has been advanced to them for war purposes. It is a suggestion that has two sides to it.

Let us hope that the rumor regarding the conservation of the order that we may win the war will hit the lettuce sandwich.

We are willing to go to the length of the lettuce sandwich.

It was the Duke of Wellington, at Waterloo, said: "I am sending gentlemen; we shall win the battle." The attitude of the Allies is the same.

And Oregon is proud of the fact that she is furnishing the most of the making of American airplanes that are the Huns out of the chronicle.

Wasn't it something about the name of Oregon that made the Spanish-American war?

Yosemite Hall has always been noted for its cleverness in a way. With about a dozen New York, it is utilizing its political power, and the result is the politicians are not will be the proper thing to try to the heart as the "Yosemite."

Individually, much can be done in fighting conditions. The men who are doing it are the silver tankard that has been the usefulness, a big silver tankard is no longer used, or is it?

It is a means of helping the war-making resources. The individual can do his or her part in the war-making resources.

THE BOYS THEY LEFT THEM. They're going to France, leaving just a few of us behind.

Just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

For three or four months, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

While our minds are a million miles away, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Where our comrades are leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Of putting in time, weary, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Just teaching those round, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Of all the time waiting, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

With the fellows who are leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

It's sure hard to leave, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

We're waiting to go, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

And you can't blame us, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

It's think, when it's over, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Can tell of the part that we are leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

It's make us feel that we are leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Walk down the street, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

To hear, every place that we are leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

Of how he went over, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

It's just our heart, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

We're finally getting, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

The hope that perhaps, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.

We will soon see them, leaving just a few of us behind, leaving just a few of us behind.
